

For Immediate Release

TCA ARSHAG DICKRANIAN ARMENIAN SCHOOL
1200 CAHUENGA BLVD. LOS ANGELES, CA 90038

US Consul General of the Republic of Armenia at TCA Arshag Dickranian School

Mr. Grigor Hovhannisyan Visits TCA ADS And Visits Classrooms

Los Angeles, June 15, 2009 – TCA Arshag Dickranian School was honored with a visit from the US Consul General of the Republic of Armenia, Mr. Grigor Hovhannisyan, along with Consular Secretary, Ms. Armine Balian, on Monday, June 8, at 10:30a.m. The honorable guests were greeted by the school's Chairman, Mr. George Mandossian, the school's principal, Mr. Vartkes Kourouyan, and several members of The Board of Trustees and The Parent Teacher Organization.

During the briefing session at the principal's office, Mr. Grigor Hovhannisyan was surprised to hear that almost all the students attending Arshag Dickranian School were children of Hayasdantsi parents and students from Pre-K to fifth grade are taught Eastern Armenian. He was also happy to learn that 21 students from the 12th grade are currently enjoying a two-week visit to Armenia.

Caption: From left: Salpi Asayan, George Mandossian, Consular Secretary Ms. Armine Balian, Parsegh Kartalian, Zara Yerkatyan, Tamar Poladian, Kevork Tashjian, US Consul General of the Republic of Armenia Mr. Grigor Hovhannisyan, Vartkes Kourouyan, Dr. Yeghia Taglyan, Angie Garibyan and Diran Depanian.

Following this meeting, The Consul General was given a tour of the school campus and visited several classrooms, including the pre-kindergarten classroom, the science laboratories and the computer classroom. High school students gathered at the Walter and Laurel Karabian Hall to hear a short speech from Mr. Grigor Hovhannisyan about the school and his well wishes to the students.

Located at 1200 North Cahuenga Blvd., Los Angeles, the TCA Arshag Dickranian Armenian School is a federally tax exempt, Pre-K to 12th grade private educational institution. For more information visit www.dickranianschool.org.

###