

For Immediate Release

TCA ARSHAG DICKRANIAN ARMENIAN SCHOOL
1200 CAHUENGA BLVD. LOS ANGELES, CA 90038

RENOWNED COACH JERRY TARKANIAN ATTENDS DICKRANIAN LIONS BASKETBALL GAME IN LAS VEGAS

Los Angeles, May 8, 2009- When the well-known basketball coach Jerry Tarkanian heard that the Dickranian Lions of TCA Arshag Dickranian School were the only Armenian basketball team competing at the Double Pump All Star High School Boys' Basketball Tournament held on April 24-26 in Las Vegas, he decided to give the boys, their coach and parents a courtly visit.

The boys may not have heard about the one time famed University of Nevada coach, but Mr. Rudolph Rameh, the Head Coach of the Dickranian Lions and the boys' parents, who have made the trip to root for their team, sure did. Mr. Tarkanian used the opportunity to tip his young compatriots with a few tricks of the game against their much more experienced opponents.

The Double Pump All Star High School Boys' Basketball Tournament was the first out of state experience for the Dickranian Lions, giving the young players the opportunity to compete with larger and more experienced school teams, as well as making acquaintance with celebrities such as Jerry Tarkanian

The Athletic Committee of Arshag Dickranian School will culminate the school's athletic activities with its Second Annual Sports Banquet to be held on Saturday, May 30, at the school's Walter and Laurel Karabian Hall, in an evening of joint celebration and total enjoyment with students, parents and guests.

For more information visit the school's website at www.dickranianschool.org