TCA Arshag Dickranian School Junior Basketball Team Wins 1st Place In AGBU Tournament

Los Angeles, May 19, 2010 - On May 2, the junior high basketball team of TCA Arshag Dickranian School won 1st place in the AGBU - AYA Glendale - Pasadena Chapter Tournament, which was held at the AGBU High School in Pasadena, CA. This year's tournament started on April 10 and the games were held over the weekends until May 2.

"It was a highly competitive series of games," said Mr. Rudolph Rameh, the Athletic Director of the school, "We really enjoyed participating in this tournament because it gives our students the chance to compete against other Armenian teams."

This year seven parties other than TCA ADS participated in the tournament, including the AGBU High School - Pasadena, the AGBU High School - Canoga Park, Hovsepian School, the UACC Church Club, the HMM Glendale Club, The Bulls HMM Club and the Armenian Sisters Academy. The Dickranians trained hard for this tournament, and once again, they proved to be a highly challenging team to play against.

Located at 1200 North Cahuenga Blvd., Los Angeles, the TCA Arshag Dickranian Armenian School is a federally tax exempt, Pre-K to 12th grade private educational institution. For more information visit www.dickranianschool.org.
