TCA Arshag Dickranian School's Upcoming Fashion Show Dedicated to Mother's Day

Los Angeles, April 12, 2012 - In celebration of Mother's Day, students of TCA Arshag Dickranian School will be acting as models in staging a fashion show on Sunday, May 6th, 2012, which will be held at the Taglyan Cultural Complex at 12:00 PM, traditionally organized by the school's Parent Teacher Organization.

Every year, the students flaunt sets of fashion items designed by various designers. The May 6 event will begin with a lunch served by Divine Catering while the theme of the event will be spring-time. Students ranging from Pre-K through 12th grade will walk down the runway showcasing the work of the designer Ms. Eva Mejl. Students will also perform in various activities such as poetry recitations, skits and folk dance to entertain parents and guests. Vendors will be present at the event, selling apparel and accessories. Donation tickets run at $60 for adults and $40 for students, the proceeds of which will benefit the school's extracurricular activities. Tickets may be acquired by contacting PTO Vice-Chair Ms. Armine Gasparyan at (323) 428 - 4747.
