TCA Arshag Dickranian School Shines in 28th KAHAM Table Tennis Tournament

Team Wins 3rd Place

Los Angeles, February 7, 2012 - On Saturday, January 21st, 2012, TCA Arshag Dickranian School's table-tennis team won 3rd place in the 28th KAHAM Table Tennis Tournament (California Armenian Students Athletic Games) held at the Homenetmen Club in Glendale, California. This is the 4th time the team participates in this tournament and proves competent enough to compete against five Armenian schools including Vahan & Anoush Shamlian School, Alex Pilibos Armenian School, AGBU Manoogian-Demirdjian School, Ferrahian School and Hovsepien School.

Arshag Dickranian School's table tennis team was comprised of eighteen students this year, ranging from the 4th to 7th grades. Trained by coach Ara Aroyan, sixth grader Armen Dayan took 1st place in his age category, while Mark Antossian and Alec Kourouyan each took 3rd place, thus placing Arshag Dickranian School at 3rd place in the overall rankings of the tournament. Students Stepan Muradyan, Movses Mkryan, Armen Dayan, Mark Antossian, Mania Mgdsyan and Michelle Dayan won 1st place in their sections; Arsen Mazlounian, Ashot Nadjiarian, Narek Klitchian and Marine Sanosyan won 2nd place in their sections; Avetis Nahapetyan, Erick Gulyan, Tereza Arutunyan, Alec Kourouyan and Harout Bambalyan won 3rd place in their sections; Daniel Boyadjian won 4th place in his section.
